About BESA

The Building Engineering Services Association (BESA) is a leading trade body that represents and supports businesses involved in the design, installation, operation, and maintenance of building engineering systems. Founded in 1904, BESA champions best practices, innovation, and professionalism across the building services sector, including critical areas like heating, ventilation, air conditioning, refrigeration, and renewable energy systems.

BESA provides industry standards, technical guidance, training, and certification to its members, ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements and promoting sustainability and energy efficiency. By fostering collaboration and driving advancements, BESA plays a crucial role in shaping the future of the built environment while addressing the evolving challenges of modern construction and building performance.

BESA Annual Conference

With a mission to drive innovation, resilience and sustainable growth across the building engineering services sector, the BESA Annual Conference brings together the industry's most influential leaders, technical experts and forward-thinking businesses.

Designed to inspire action and accelerate progress, the conference provides a platform to interrogate the real-world potential of emerging technologies, evolving regulations and next-generation skills.

Through keynote sessions, panel debates, CPD sessions and targeted networking opportunities, attendees gain practical knowledge and strategic direction to shape the future of the built environment.

For sponsors and exhibitors, the conference offers the opportunity to connect with decision-makers, showcase solutions that address critical industry needs, and position your brand at the forefront of sector-wide transformation.

TESTIMONIALS

98% of delegates rated the conference a 5-star event and would be back in 2026

It was an amazing day, I networked alot and the event was top notch. The Association's pace and engagement is really great and that is testament to the amazing BESA Group team and its member's consistent commitment to bettering our industry.”

Claire Curran, Managing Director of Linaker

AIRO was keen to support and work with BESA not only for regulatory alignment, but also to broaden our client base and network. The event was extremely valuable, and we made a number of fantastic connections. It was a pleasure working with BESA, and we’re looking forward to continuing our collaboration in the future.”

Victoria Collar-Brown, COO, AIRO
